OUT OF CONTROL

If you were a new student or teacher you might think things at Vernon High School were pretty normal, the first day or so. After being with us a while you would know that some things were not. One of the things that makes VHS so different is the student body. There are generally few problems and nearly everyone feels like family, even though there is much class rivalry. If you have ever been a Senior you know about that. The most important thing that makes us so unique is something you will be able to find just by looking at the pages of this book: we are all "OUT OF CONTROL."

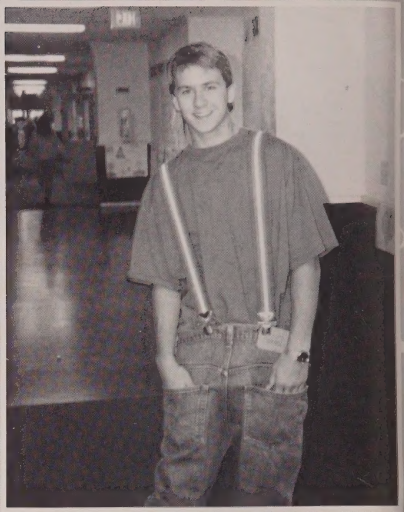
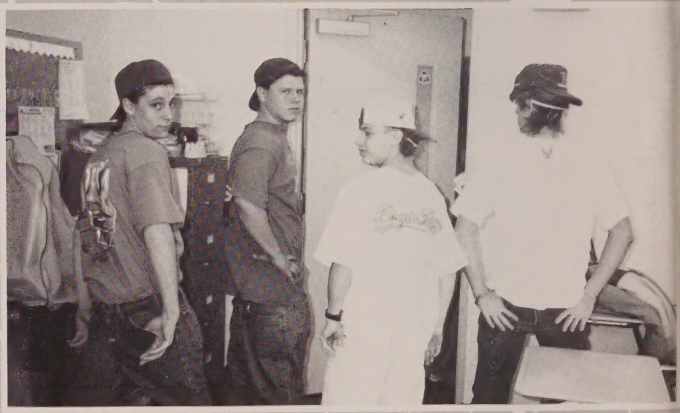
OUT OF



Some people never seem to be in control. Right: These guys look like they have been in this position before. Above: These two appear to be having problems with their sense of smell. Some days it just feels like we are losing control of everything.



CONTROL

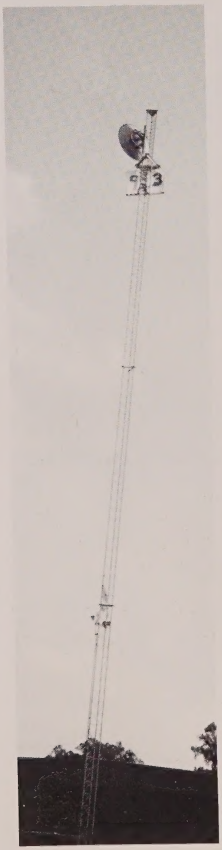
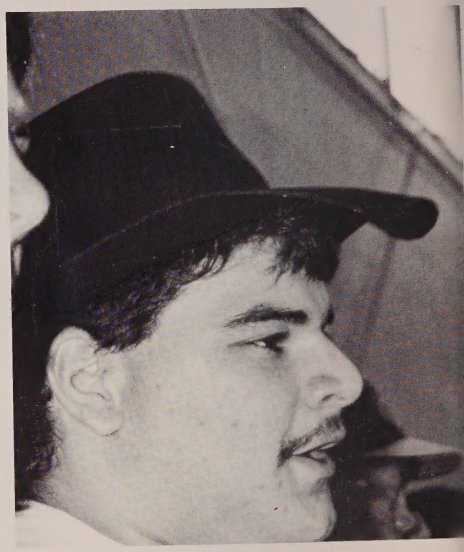
Clockwise from top left: Ms. Lloyd grins at her means of total control. A group of students show that friendship is a part of student life. Dail Dybdal sits enthralled by cheerleaders at a pep rally. Luttrell Bowers shows her school spirit. Kelley Polito and Rista Courtney group for a friendly smile. '93 is proudly displayed at the top of the tower at VHS, where three students daringly climbed to show senior spirit. Center, Michael Dalton and Vicky Walsingham think Florida State is #1.





Part of student life is being able to drive and knowing what's in and what's out. By the number of autos in the VHS parking lot, one can assume that students prefer their own means of transportation. Above are a few of the many models found in our parking lot. Some students don't get to drive and must grudgingly ride the "Yellow Dog." Below are a few famous people VHS students think are HOT! Model Cindy Crawford is a top sensation, best known for her Pepsi commercials.

This year's Homecoming was exciting and filled with competition. The theme was "Jackets' World." We of course had the traditional dress-up days. Monday was Opposite Day. Kriss Kross Day was Tuesday. Wednesday was Hippie Day, and Thursday was selected as Collegiate Day. Friday, as usual, was Orange and Blue Day.

Another popular event was the Pudding Eating Contest. Eating for the seniors was Ray Fry; for the juniors there was Scott Duke; for the sophomores Jason Taylor; and for the freshmen Will Spence. The juniors got first place honors, the sophomores second, and the seniors and freshmen tied for third.

Thursday morning the Mr. Jacket contest was held. The winner was senior Kevin Pettis. Second and third place honors went to seniors Kevin White and Danny Hood, respectively.

At noon on Thursday, the pickle barrels were taken up and counted, with juniors placing first, and the seniors and sophomores tying for second. Also at noon was the Door Judging Contest. Winning was Mrs. Deal's door (juniors). Coming in second was senior sponsor Mrs. Sapp's door, and third place went to junior sponsor Mr. Seaboch.

The parade and pep rally were happy chaos, and that night a good crowd was on hand for the game, which was exciting but wet, and a disappointment with us losing to Havanna by a score of 20-38. At halftime, a tie for first-runner up was announced, with Rista Courtney and Luttrell Bowers sharing that honor. The queen was announced: Jessica Gilmore!!

From top to bottom, left to right: Luttrell appears slightly nervous but also excited as she walks across the football field. Rista seems to be enjoying herself. Homecoming Queen '91, Nancy Alford, crowns Jessica Gilmore our new '92 Homecoming Queen. Jessica is proud of the night's accomplishments. Luttrell, Jessica, and Rista all seem to be happy after hearing the results. Jessica's enthusiasm helps her to become the Homecoming Queen. Jessica smiles as she takes her victory ride around the football field.

MISS VERNON PAGEANT

The 1993 Miss Vernon Pageant was held on April 17 at 6:30 p.m. in the Vernon High School cafeteria. The student council was in charge of the pageant and had help from Mrs. Pat Balboni. The younger girls had their turns first, with the Miss Vernon contestants modeling their casual wear and evening wear at intervals during the pageant. The final test for the young women was the question they had to answer in front of the judges and audience. The judges then tabulated the scores and announced the winners in each category. The new 1993 Miss Vernon is Jeanne Block.

Spring Festival of the Arts

On Thursday, May 13, the Vernon High School Art, Music and Drama Departments put on the annual Spring Festival of the Arts in the VHS cafeteria. There were many displays on the walls and tables designed by VHS art students (above and below). Carmen Anderson, right, stands holding her saxophone after the band presentation. Many songs were orchestrated including excerpts from different movies including "Phantom of the Opera," "Beauty and the Beast," and "Aladdin." After the band played, the Vernon High Color Guard danced to Billy Ray Cyrus' famous song "Achy Breaky." There was also a brief presentation by the Drama Department which included a few scenes from their upcoming play underline beginMartian Chroniclesend. Congratulations for another successful year to all those who contributed to this year's Spring Festival of the Arts.

SPRING EVENTS

There were two athletic banquets held this year to honor those athletes who participated in sports activities for the 1992-93 school year. Many individual awards were presented at the fall and spring banquets. From top to bottom, left to right: Chastity Reno received an award for best defensive average in softball. The senior football players presented their coaches with plaques of appreciation. Brian Brock received an award for the best batting average in varsity baseball. Mr. Jerry Tyre was presented a certificate of appreciation for helping at the basketball games. Each member of the boys' track team received a ribbon for excelling in his area, including Starsky Harrell for the mile run and Ray Fry for the shotput.

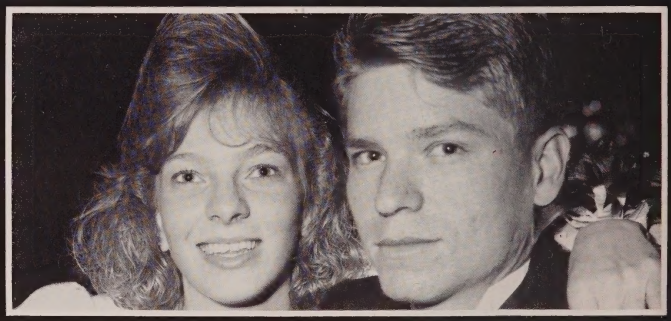
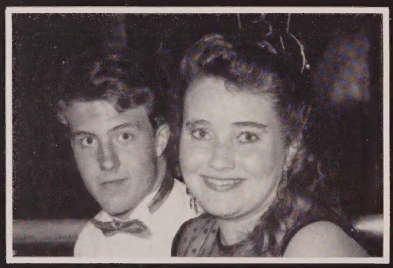
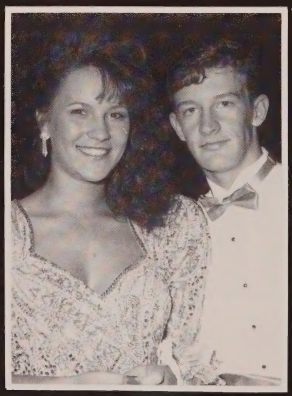
JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

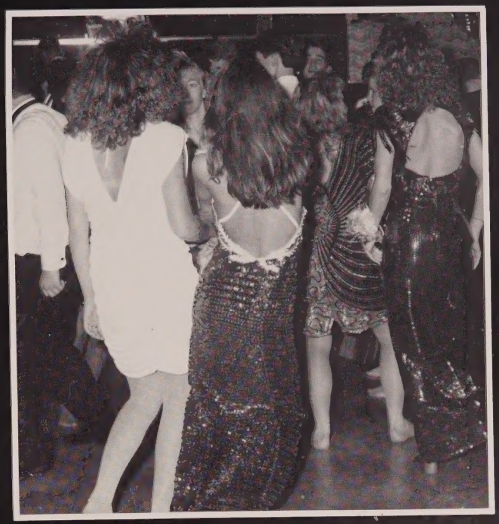
The 1992-93 prom was held on May 2 at Thunderbirds in Panama City. Students and their dates began arriving around 6:30 to have their pictures made. A buffet with roast, popcorn shrimp, and various hors d'oevres was served during the evening and enjoyed by all. The music and DJ were excellent, and the selections were varied so that all tastes were accounted for. Nearly everyone stayed until the end of the prom, and all agreed that this was the best prom ever!

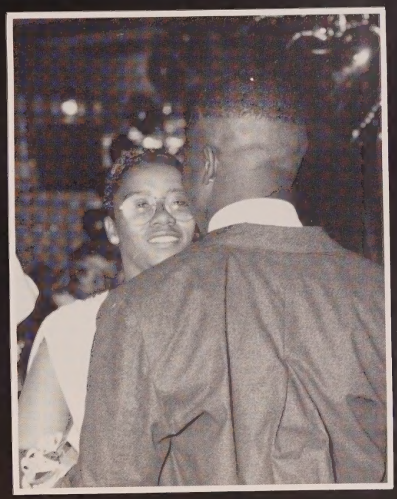
Clockwise, dining at the table are Jessica Gilmore, Joan Spence, and Tori Batt with their dates. Teresa Pettis and her loved one are smiling for the candid shot. Raymond models his cute but flashing vested tux with his proud-to-be-date Ashley Batchelor. Karen Gilley and Kyle Wilson stop and pose a sweet shot for the photographer. April Gotshall shows her beautiful smile. Christina Austin and her date enjoying the prom. On the next page, top to bottom, left to right, we have Chastity Reno and Rista Courtney showing off their garters. Chanda Murray, Shombe Smith, Deontra Andrews, Teresa Jackson, Jenny Yarde, Luttrell Bowers, Jerome Potter, Mary Peterson, Lenore Peterson, and Vanessa Taylor are having a great time. Kristy Gainey, Teresa Pettis, and Christy Hightower dance the night away, as does the rest of the crowd.











Leaving Friday morning at 6:00 a.m. on May 7, the Senior Class was on their way to their destination of Nashville, Tennessee. During the long hours traveling and sight-seeing on the bus, students listened to the radio, gossiped, played cards, and were entertained by some singers from the back of the bus. Around 3:00 p.m. they checked into the Days Inn. Later that night they spent a couple of hours shopping at the mall. After checking out of the motel, they spent all day Saturday at Opryland. Lunch time came and they then boarded the General Jackson (pictured left) and took a smooth river ride to the city and back. Afterwards they returned to Opryland until 9:00 p.m. The seniors then stayed until 12:00 to watch the Grand Ol' Opry, with guest stars Garth Brooks, Diamond Rio, Charlie Pride, and Grandpa Jones. After a long day of rides, shopping, and pictures being taken, it wasn't hard to fall asleep going home. Together for one last time, they will never forget this fun and memorable weekend spent with each other.

GET THE PICTURE

Clockwise from the right, Danny Hood, Kevin White, and Michael Rogers enjoy the buffet. Mrs. Tammy Smith, Mrs. Bobbie Dawson, and Mrs. Wanda Sapp are ready to stay up to keep the girls from misbehaving. Carmen Anderson, Jennifer Register, and Allison Brock await the bus's departure. Clay Burns, Kyle Wilson, and Kory Freed relax from the long day. Surprisingly we caught Tammy Fraser and Teresa Pettis in the act. Rista Courtney smiles for a funny shot. Kory Freed, Gary Gipson, Lori Rhoton, and Rista Courtney waiting to board the Gen. Jackson. And it seems that Gary Gipson is in no mood for playing around. On the next page left to right, Kevin Pettis, Tammy Fraser, Teresa Pettis, and Vicky Walsingham take a break from all the harsh rides and opt for a smooth one. Luttrell Bowers, Chanda Murray, and Teresa Jackson "Express Themselves!" We find out that James Jenkins is not where he's supposed to be (wrong floor and the wrong room!). Center, an unforgettable moment when Dail Dybdal and Benji Dykes sing our Senior Class Song "Who's Gonna Fill Their Shoes." Far right, Felisha McIntyre takes a moment for relaxation before a busy day at Opryland. Lori Rhoton huddles for a quick snapshot. Chanda Murray, Felisha McIntyre, and Teresa Jackson enjoying their breakfast, while Jerome Potter replies "Just let me eat and I'll have a good day." We have a group of Seniors that just got off the General Jackson, ready for the rest of their adventure to continue. Bottom right are Gary Gipson, Kory Freed, James Jenkins, Benji Dykes, Marie Pettis, and Charlotte Rasnic at the snack shop sitting on the cashier's counter car.

GRADUATION

The 1993 Commencement exercises were held Tuesday evening, June 1, on the Vernon High School football field. The night was warm and humid, but at least it wasn't raining. A large crowd was in attendance, and a relaxed, although expectant, mood was in the air. After proceeding onto the field to the strains of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance," salutatorian Carmen Anderson opened with prayer. Dail Dybdal, Senior Class President, followed with the welcome, and next came Marcia Carroll, who gave the valedictory address. Mrs. McCrary then presented honors and scholarships to deserving seniors. Students graduating with honors were Ashley Batchelor, Leona Best, Allison Brock, Kenny Brock, Sandra Filep, Jessica Gilmore, Danny Hood, Roland Pompey, and Charlotte Rasnic. Those graduating with high honors were Carmen Anderson, Luttrell Bowers, Marcia Carroll, Ray Fry, Chanda Murray, Lenore Peterson, Kelley Polito, Danny Shaw, Star Shepard, and Joan Spence. After the awarding of honors, Mr. Williams fulfilled his duty as superintendant by handing out diplomas. Seniors were then declared graduates of Vernon High, whereupon they immediately tossed up their caps and scattered to joyfully collect hugs from family and friends.

What was the QUESTION

Top: Hayward Dykes contemplates world affairs in Time magazine. Middle: Roland Pompey hides in despair from his trig problems. W.O. Puckett takes control of his favorite subject, psychology. Really?! Chastity Reno, Amy Brown, and Rista Courtney reading. (Yes, but what are they reading?) Bottom: Heather Patterson asks, "Could you please repeat the question? Shawn Frank enjoys looking at a magazine. (Better than doing a book report, right?)

This year the presidential campaign race started off with three political candidates. The Republician party was represented by George Bush, the Democratic party was represented by Bill Clinton, and the independent party was represented by Texan billionaire Ross Perot. When the election was over and the results in, Clinton had passed the required 270 electoral votes, took at least 27 states, and won a plurality of the popular vote.

The show began with the bombing of Pearl Harbor and went into Armed Forces on Parade, Chattanooga Choo Choo, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, String of Pearls, Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree, and God Bless America. The band traveled to Troy, Alabama for the Southeastern United States Marching Band Festival where they were one of only nine bands out of twenty-two to score all Superior ratings. Then the band performed in the FBA District II Marching Band Festival where they were the only small school band to score Superior in all categories. After the football season the band participated in community parades, concert festivals, and graduation. The band members' dedication and commitment to excellence has helped make the band the superior quality it is today.

JOURNALISM

So you thought being on the yearbook staff was all fun and games, huh? Maybe you should have seen all the layouts of pages the staff drew, and the pile of copy that was typed. Then you'd know that, although it is fun, it also requires some hard work and commitment. This year the staff added to its responsibilities the publication of the school newspaper. Six issues were printed and sold. As we are on a fall delivery, the yearbooks will arrive in early September.

BASKETBALL

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1992-1993 Boy's Varsity Basketball team was coached by Coach Aaron Todd. He had to work with a fairly young team, having only four seniors, but the team showed great skill and talent throughout the season. The Jackets played intensely the entire year, keeping all of the fans on their toes wondering what was going to happen next. The Jackets ended the year with a season record of 11-11.

According to Coach Todd, "They were fun to watch play as was evidenced by the fact that our crowds were good and our student body support is better now than it has ever been. We also had a strong following on road trips."

BOYS B - TEAM BASKETBALL

The 1992-93 Boys' B-Team Basketball program showed great enthusiasm and talent. Although it wasn't a winning season, each of the individual players are winners because of the effort and team cooperation they showed on and off the court. Many of their games were quite close in scoring, belying their overall record. With their experience and their "never say die" attitude, we're expecting a good season next year.

Above, Coach Don Brown tells the team what the next plays will be. At right is Coach Brown again. This is his second year of coaching at Vernon High School and he is doing an excellent job.

CLASS OFFICERS

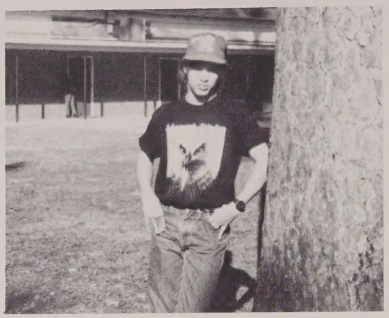
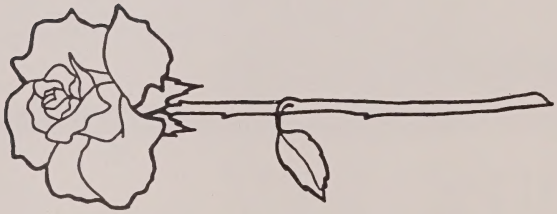
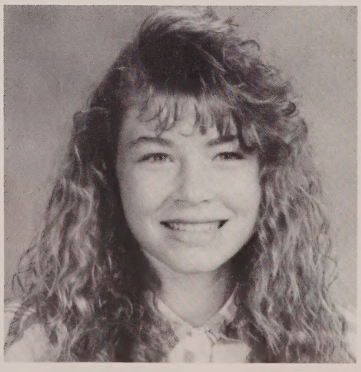
CLASS FAVORITES



This year's 1992-93 Sophomore Class Favorites were Kattie Nickerson and Jason Paridon. These two were selected by their class. Kattie and Jason were both very active with school related activities. Kattie was a junior varsity cheerleader, a member of the V.H.S. Student Council, and ran track. Jason played on the Vernon football and baseball teams.

CLASS BEAUTY





The Sophomore Class Beauty for 1992-93 was Herrika Lovett. She was chosen by her peers, and then the top three girls' pictures were sent to judges. Herrika was involved in many activities at V.H.S. She was captain of junior varsity cheerleading squad and also ran track.

Congratulations to "Teacher of the Year," Ms. Mary Cholerton. According to Ms. Cholerton, "To be chosen as VMS Teacher of the Year is indeed an honor and a privilege. The responsibility of a teacher is both wonderful and frightening. Many lives are touched by a teacher and seldom does she know the good or harm she has done. I can only pray that I have said or given the right thing to the boy or girl who needs me.

"A teacher for 28 years, I have been a Language Arts teacher at Vernon High/Vernon Middle for 20 years. I have taught Language Arts, Journalism, Bible Lit and one year of seventh grade history during my career in the Vernon schools.

"I obtained a BA degree from Tift College in Forsyth, GA and a Master's Degree from Troy State. And yes, I love teaching and I thoroughly enjoy the students I come in contact with."

Kyle,

You are going to places where

I cannot tag along;

Now what you need is not my care

But sense of right and wrong.

I hope in all those growing years

I've given that to you

As I have tried to teach you what

You should and should not do.

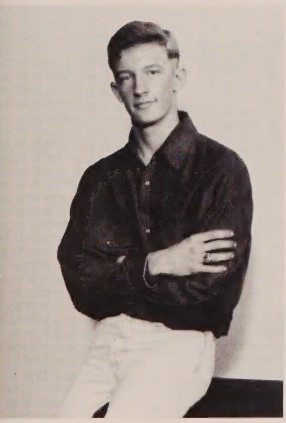
But in the end you must decide

The path that you will take

For your own good and peace of mind

And not for Granny Muriel's sake.

Love, Mom, Josh, and Kruize



Lori,

We've always been close,

and I thought there could be nothing sweeter than the times we shared when you were just a little girl....

And I want you to know that, as proud as I am to have you for my daughter, it is an even greater source of pride and happiness to know you are truly my friend!

Mama

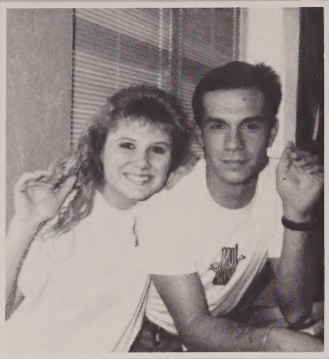
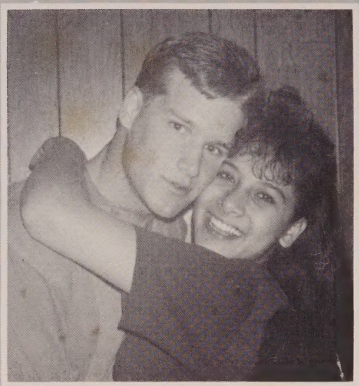
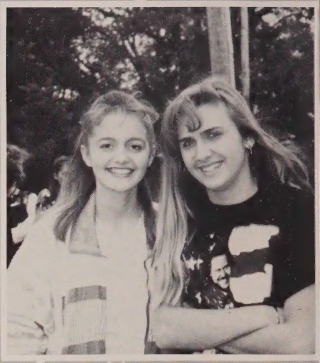
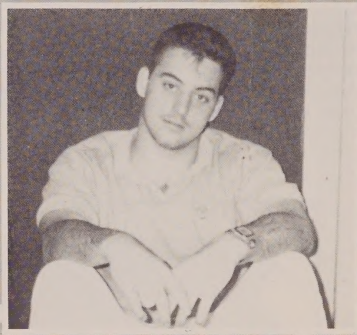
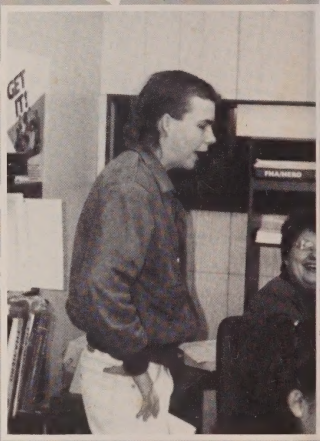
Time OUT

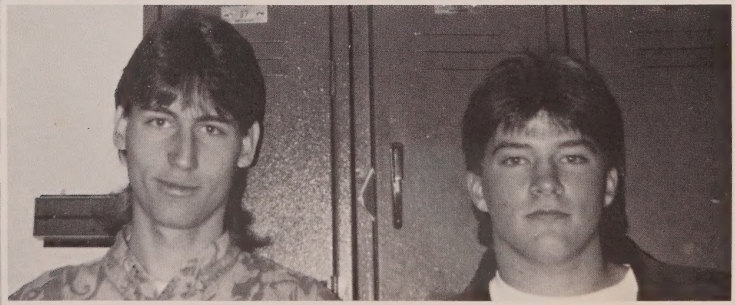


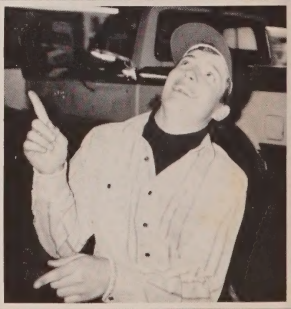












This has been a very out of control year for everyone, especially Seniors. They have been celebrating graduation ever since August 21, 1992. Over the past years we have made friendships that will last forever in our hearts. In ten years we will be able to look back on all of the out-of-control things we have done, such as Homecoming festivities, Senior Skip Day and Spring Break, not to mention all the in-be-tween social gatherings. Surely there will never be another "OUT OF CONTROL" class like SENIORS 93.
